Fire Sale

The Fikus family's not roasted, not salted—they're just plain nuts. Alan Arkin, Rob Reiner and Sid Caesar star in this crazy quilt of a comedy. Adult language and humor. (PG-1:29) Nov. 1, 5, 17

Boxing Sugar Ray Leonard Vs. Bernie Prado

Welterweight sensation Sugar Ray Leonard is back on HBO! Since winning his Olympic gold medal, he's displayed enough talent—nifty footwork, rapid-fire punches—to win all 15 of his pro bouts. Tonight he faces Bernie Prado, with an impressive record of 20-4 (12 KO's). Catch the flamboyant Sugar Ray on Nov. 3

Take a Hard Ride

Jim Brown
Lee Van Cleef

An honest cowboy, a cheerfully dishonest gambler and a mute Indian scout cover hundreds of dusty miles across the Old West taking money to the Mexican families to whom it belongs. Pro-footballers Jim Brown and Fred Williamson are the most hunted men in the West as an ambush awaits them behind every bush. Typical western violence. (PG-1:43) Nov. 4, 8, 14, 19, 24

McQ

John Wayne goes West—only this time to Seattle. He's a modern day cop exposing police corruption and laying down his own law. Colleen Dewhurst stars. Profanity, gunplay. (PG-1:56) Nov. 1, 5, 9, 15

Telefon

Charles Bronson is out to stop a demented Stalinist from ruining Detente. Lee Remick co-stars as the CIA and the KGB clash. Bloody violence, adult language. (PG-1:43) Nov. 2, 6, 10, 14, 18, 22

The Sea Gypsies

A young widower, his daughters, 13 and 8, a lady journalist—and a stowaway—set out to sail 'round the world in a converted trawler. Stranded off Alaska, this Seattle Family Robinson learns the lessons of survival. Robert Logan and Mikki Jamison-Olson, the reporter, are a likable two-some. Spectacular scenery and wildlife from the makers of Grizzly Adams. "Good fun for the family." (Motion Picture Product Digest) Family fare. (G-1:43) Nov. 3, 6, 12, 18, 23

Walt Disney Old Yeller

A pioneering family challenges the great frontier with only a stray canine to help them. Dorothy McGuire, as the mother, handles crises with affection and insight while Fess Parker is away on a cattle drive. Chuck Connors and Tommy Kirk "Careful blending of fun, laughter, love, adventure and tragedy." (Daily Variety) Family fare. (G-1:23) Nov. 4, 7, 12, 16, 20, 23

Rolling adventure from the creators of The Three Musketeers. What a cast! Charlton Heston surprises as a blustering King Henry VIII; George C. Scott, hilarious as a king of thieves. Oliver Reed duels his way through 16th century England. Raquel Welch is his lady love. "Muscularly entertaining... a prince of a movie." (Village Voice) Mild fight scenes. (PG-1:53) Nov. 10, 13, 16, 19, 23

The Train Robbers

John Wayne Ann-Margret

A Western full of action, excitement and adventure! John Wayne and his buddies band together to help Ann-Margret, a voluptuous, hard-drinking, but virtuous widow, recover gold her late husband buried in a Mexican desert. A menacing horde of hard-riding horsemen have the same goal. Mild profanity. (PG-132) Nov. 11, 13, 24, 28

First Love

Co-stars William Katt (Carrie) and Susan Dey find it hard to establish a real relationship amid today's casual morality. "A mature picture." (Hollywood Reporter) Nudity, frank sexual language and activity. (R-132) Nov. 3, 8, 13, 19

On Location:

Catskill Comedians

Host Joey Bishop is joined by six incredibly versatile comedians at the Concord Hotel in New York's Catskill mountains. Hilarious proof that top comedy still thrives in "The Las Vegas of the East." Nov. 10, 25, 30

Victor Borge

When Victor Borge sits down at the piano, everybody laughs. Don't miss this master of comedy and music. The New York Times called him "the funniest entertainer in the world." You'll call him the Great Dane. Nov. 5, 13, 21

College Basketball

USSR vs. Michigan State To defeat the USSR national basketball team (controversial victors at the '72 Olympics, runners-up in '76) might need some magic. But top-rated MSU feels it has plenty in the form of the sleight of hand and height of jump of Earvin "Magic" Johnson. Nov. 14
North Carolina vs. Northwestern The Tar Heels, again a national power, are led by All-America aspirant Mike O'Koren, the No. 2 field-goal shooter in the country last season. The improved Wildcats are counting on an upset. Nov. 29

Another Man, Another Chance

James Caan
Genevieve Bujold

In his most spectacular film to date, director Claude Lelouch (A Man and a Woman) chronicles a close encounter of the human kind. It's the story of a French girl, Genevieve Bujold, who runs off to America and meets a frontier-loving veterinarian, James Caan. A tender tale set against 1870's action: an Indian attack, a bank robbery, public hanging and a wild handicap race. Rape scene, mild language. (PG-2:08) Nov. 10, 22, 26

Shampoo

Warren Beatty
Julie Christie
Lee Grant

Warren Beatty as a handsome Hollywood hairdresser among the bedrooms and bankrolls of his Beverly Hills clients, Julie Christie, Goldie Hawn and Lee Grant (in her Oscar-winning role) join Beatty in this brilliant, blistering, raunchy and hilarious study of American life. "That best of all concoctions . . . keeps us entertained while seeing it . . . keeps us thinking about it long afterwards." (Family Circle) Adult situations, rough language, nudity. (R-1:52) Nov. 18, 21, 26, 30

Special Delivery

Fast, funny and full of action! When a cool $500,000 gets stashed in a mailbox, Bo Svenson wants to make off with the loot—and Cybill Shepherd. Brief nudity, language. (PG-1:39) Nov. 4, 12, 22, 25

Shout at the Devil

Boozing Lee Marvin and strait-faced Roger Moore, holed up in a remote African river delta, team up to take on a squad of Germans in this epic WW I adventure. Some violence. (PG-2:08) Nov. 14, 21, 26

Gymnastics U.S. Acro Sport Team Trials

Acro Sport? It's an exciting blend of gymnastics and acrobatics that has tumbling, leaping and trampolines. Besides competition for the U.S. team, you'll see the most dazzling men's pair in the sport—both from the USSR—performing their championship routines. Nov. 21, 24, 26

Where's this crazy man from—outer space? You bet he is. He's Robin Williams, alias Mork of Mork & Mindy. You first saw him on HBO's Second Annual Young Comedians in 1977. Now Robin's back again with a show of his own. He's manic, diverse and this year's hottest new comedian. Nov. 4, 12, 17, 21

On Location: King goes to Queens

The scene is the Big Apple as native New Yorker Alan King strolls about the "biggest, dirtiest and the best city in the country!" Then on the stage of Queens College, we catch an unrestrained performance. King's brand of humor goes right to the jugular. Gentle he isn't. He's got a tongue like a pitch fork and he uses it to skewer the everyday things that nag and frustrate all of us. Critic Kenneth Tynan once said, "If a sawed-off shotgun could talk, it would sound like Alan King." Nov. 24, 27

STURGEN '78

Jane Fonda
Vanessa Redgrave

Julia

Jane Fonda and Vanessa Redgrave are near perfection in a tender, poignant story of friendship and courage. In this touching, vibrant tapestry of the late 1930's, two headstrong girls turn into extraordinary women. Vanessa Redgrave won an Oscar as Julia. Jane Fonda, as Lillian, was never better. "A gem... a masterful movie... Fonda in her finest role... Redgrave is glorious." (Gene Shalit) Mild violence. (PG-1:16) Nov. 26, 30

High-Ballin' Peter Fonda

Here's a White Line Fever-style highway adventure with spectacular action. Cyclist Fonda's out to help trucker Jerry Reed remain independent against a ruthlessly corrupt system. Guisy, sexy driver Helen Shaver joins them in some hair-raising escapades climaxing in a stunt chase never before attempted on film. Brief nudity, some profanity. (PG-1:40) Nov. 25, 26

Pony Express Rider

Plenty of action and sprawling adventure for adults and children alike. Daring young men ride half-wild mustangs through Indian and outlaw territory so the mails can go through. This rousing Western is true to the spirit of Stagecoach and Red River, as a young Texan heads West to seek revenge against his father's killer. The colorful characters include Gunsmoke veterans Ken Curtis and Buck Taylor. Fanify fare. (G-1:40) Nov. 25, 29

The Cassandra Crossing

An express train hurtles through Europe with a terrorist splattered with deadly bubonic plague bacteria aboard. All-star cast includes Richard Harris as a noted neurosurgeon; Sophia Loren, his journalist wife; Ava Gardner, a woman with wealth and influence plus a gigolo; Burt Lancaster, a ruthless health official. Violence, adult situations. (R-2:05) Nov. 11, 20, 29

Jon Voight Conrack

When Conrack came to Yamacraw Island, he was only a schoolteacher. When he left six months later, he was much, much more. Hume Cronyn is the crusty superintendent of schools, amazed at the newcomer's methods of teaching fifth graders. "Jon Voight maintains his humor, gumption and versatility." (N.Y. Times) Mild language. (PG-1:46) Nov. 19, 23, 25, 27

The Muppets are coming!

The big news on the December HBO front is a special from the makers of the award-winning Muppets. Emmet Otter's Jug-Band Christmas—a warm, touching, unique and very funny story that will appeal to all ages.

Introduced by Kermit the Frog, this captivating Christmas special has a whole new cast of characters—from Emmet and his Ma to a raucous group of tough trouble-makers who tear around town in a sports car.

The story will delight you. And so will the incredible attention to detail in the production itself. Meticulously built, realistic sets and props, and the electronic devices used to operate them, make this one of the most original and outstanding specials ever produced.

And this is just part of the great holiday line-up next month on HBO.
